Scotland County & Kannapolis City Schools Spotlight

- Scotland county facilitator: Jonathan McRae
- Kannapolis City facilitators: Annette Moore, Heather Edmisten
- Department of Information Technology Secretary James A. Weaver visited the Tech Teams at Scotland county on June 29th, and at Kannapolis City on August 2nd. He met with students and was able to tour the facilities as well as learn about the projects they have been working on. He also provided insight into the IT field and the opportunities to advance one's career in state government and public service.
- We look forward to continuing to partner with Secretary Weaver to expand access to the growing technology sector in North Carolina.
